Naturopathic Practitioner	functional nutritional practitioner. She is not a licensed physician or registered dietician. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctors of Naturopathic medicine (N.D.'s) receive extensive training in basic medical sciences and graduate from four-year accredited institutions. Some states currently license naturopaths, and national standards of care and practice as well as peer review have evolved in support of naturopathy. Doctors of Naturopathic Medicine focus on therapies that are primarily natural in origin and non-toxic, such as functional nutrition, homeopathy, botanical medicine, hydrotherapy, physical therapy and counseling, among others. • Because the State of Illinois does not license naturopathic practitioners, Judy Fulop is ineligible to participate in Medicare, Medicaid (IL HFS), or any of our insurance contracts.
